A new beginning – a Network and an Infrastructure!

Great news: In August Danish Bioimaging hired a new national coordinator, Sonia Diaz Garcia, to organize all the initiatives related to creating a new distributed and multimodal national research infrastructure. Sonia comes with a lot of experience and a strong background in communication and will also take over the coordination of the Network. A very warm welcome to Sonia!

This will therefore be the last newsletter from me. I step back from the coordinator job in the Network, but will still be associated with bioimaging activities through my job at DTU Compute.

I wish to thank all of you for a wonderful experience. I have learned so much and met so many truly inspirational people. I wish you all the best and look forward to meeting you out in the DBI world.

Best regards

/Retiring DBI Network Coordinator Rebecca Engberg
